Recent release

Saroo, a five year old Indian boy gets lost in India and eventually adopted by an Australian family. Twenty-Five years later with only memories, determination and Google Earth he sets off to find his lost family and his first home. 6 Oscar nominations, beautiful cinematography and a true story.

SUN 17 SEPT : FARGO

Classic Film

An unsuccessful car salesman plans to wipe out his personal debts by hiring a pair of small-time, bung ling crooks to kidnap his wife then collect the ransom from her wealthy tightwad dad. An original crime story that's quirky (what else, it's the Cohen brothers?), violent and darkly funny.

Sun Sept 24 Note: No movie scheduled due to Equinox Cafe

SUN 1 OCT : Kolya

Foreign Film

Frank Louka, is a down-on-his-luck concert musician who agrees to a bogus marriage with a Russian woman for money. When she takes off and leaves behind her five year old son, Louka must take care of the boy. An unlikely union, they grow to become inseparable friends.

Sun 8 Oct Note: No movie scheduled due to Thanksgiving

SUN 15 OCT : HIDDEN FIGURES

Recent release

The untold true story of three brilliant African-American women working at NASA who, while working against gender and colour biases, served as the brains behind the launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit. It's unabashedly sentimental and hugely popular.

SUN 22 OCT : The Days of Wine and Roses

B&W Oldie Night

A 1962 starkly realistic portrait of alcoholism. Jack Lemmon and Lee Remick received Oscar nominations for their gripping portrayals of a tortured couple whose lives are ruined by booze. Black and white and grimly grey. I hope it's not raining this night.

SUN 29 OCT : BEST IN SHOW

Classic comedy

In this wickedly funny "mockumentary" written by Christopher Guest and Eugene Levy, a motley crew of eccentrics prepares to take part in what is undoubtedly one of the greatest events of their lives - the highly competitive Mayflower Dog Show.

SUN 5 NOV : FANTASTIC MR FOX

Animation night

Based on the famous children's novel by Roald Dahl, this animated classic tells the tale of the tricky and clever Mr Fox as he outwits his the neighbouring farmers to steal food from under their noses in order to feed his family. Directed by the amazing Wes Anderson.

SUN 12 NOV : I, DANIEL BLAKE

Recent release

After suffering a heart-attack, kind and generous working class hero Daniel must fight the nightmarish bureaucratic UK welfare system in order to receive his entitlements. Director Ken Loach presents a critical look at a system that often prevents - rather than helps - people get back on their feet.

SUN 19 NOV : THE FULL MONTY

Comedy night

After losing his job at a Sheffield steel factory, Gaz and his friend Dave, desperate for money, recruit some friends and decide to create their own male strip-tease act "Hard Steel". The group promise that their show will succeed because they are willing to go "the Full Monty". One of the English comedy greats.

SUN 26 NOV : THE HOST

Horror/comedy

Careless American military personnel dump chemicals into South Korea's Han River. Several years later, a creature emerges from the tainted waters to terrorise local residents. When the creature abducts their daughter (Ah-sung Ko), a vendor (Song Kang-ho) and his family decide that they are the only ones who can save her.

SUN 3 DEC : A MAN CALLED OVE

Current release

Ove (Rolf Lassgård) is the classic angry old man next door. An isolated curmudgeon with strict routines, Ove has all but given up on life. After a boisterous young family moves in next door and accidentally flattens Ove's mailbox, an unlikely friendship forms. A comical, heartwarming tale of unexpected friendship from Sweden.

SUN 10 DEC : The Good, The Bad & The Ugly

Western classic

In the Southwest during the Civil War, mysterious stranger, Joe (Clint Eastwood), Mexican outlaw, Tuco (Eli Wallach) and mercenary, Angel Eyes (Lee Van Cleef), search and compete for a buried cache of Confederate gold. One of the greatest and most influential Westerns of all time with an iconic soundtrack - well worth revisiting.
