

Britannia Community Services Centre supports the Vancouver Park Board philosophy which “recognizes the arts as an essential element in a valid, creative and balanced community, and through its own jurisdiction, seeks to actively facilitate participation in and access to the arts for all citizens”

And, Britannia Community Services Centre encourages and supports arts initiatives and activities for the enjoyment and participation of all members of the community.

To that end, Britannia Community Services Centre seeks to:

- expand and support opportunities in the arts at Britannia for people to learn and create;
- create and support opportunities for community building and learning through participation in community-based public art initiatives; and
- create and support links between the arts and the everyday lives of people through a community cultural development process.
