I am part of the Haisla & Kitaso Xai'xais nations of the Great Bear Rainforest of BC. I was raised in Klemtu and Vancouver, always having a deep connection with the land.

I have a profound respect for the land, its teachings, and the ways in which it nourishes both the body and spirit.

My creative outlets are music, photography, and videography.

I live an organic, vegan lifestyle, which deepens my connection to the land and my understanding of food as medicine.

I can't wait to meet everyone!

Ki Aikido (18yrs+)

Aikido is "The Art of Peace", originally from Japan. In Ki Aikido, we emphasize the awareness and use of Ki (mind energy, intention). We start a typical class by practicing Ki Development exercises to learn the feeling of Coordination of Mind and Body, for relaxed, efficient, yet powerful movement, in aikido or in daily life. By practicing Coordination, we begin to understand what Ki feels like. Then we practice Ki Aikido exercises using a controlled and choreographed attack from a partner, so we can learn to sense our partner's Ki, blend with it and redirect it so that their movement follows. The exercises teach us how to apply the principle of non-dissention to transform potential conflict into a peaceful resolution. Suitable for adults for all ages and levels of physical ability. Beginners may try a free General class anytime. The High Grade class is for 1st Kyu or more advanced students. $10/drop-in
